

For Children Three Years and Up

Who to Contact?

1. State Resources - DHH Specific

- Center for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Youth
- Office of Deaf and Hard of Hearing
 - Regional Deaf Centers
- WA Deaf-Blind Project
 - WA Sensory Disabilities Services
 - WA School for the Blind
- Washington Hands & Voices

Here is a list of those working to support families of children who are DHH in our state.

If you are not living in these program and school areas, it's best to contact a state resource to get directed to your local supports.

2. Preschool and Elementary School Programs -DHH Specific

Early Intervention Programs and Schools
(These programs can serve families within their regions)

- Northwest School for DHH Children -Shoreline
- Hearing Speech & Deaf Center - Seattle
 - Rosen Preschool
- Listen and Talk - Kirkland
- Salish Sea Deaf School - Burlington
- Spokane HOPE School - Spokane
- Washington State School for the Deaf - Vancouver

3. Your Local School District

Some school districts have DHH Programs

- List of DHH Specific Preschools across Washington